CITY CLERK REPORT

Minutes from October 10th meeting were read

All October bills were paid as outlined on the Bank Reconciliation printout to each member.

Matt Simmons motioned to pay November bills and Jim Fritch seconded .

Monthly checks to Mark, Tyler and Sheryle were paid on October 31st.

2023 PROJECT REPORT

Matthew gave a report on plans for 2023, Fall Festival. Three members so far and brainstorming ideas.

TRUNK N TREAT EVENT

It was successful with over 60 people showed up and 36 children participated in the parade and costume contest.

Our goal of $10,000 is to build bathroom next to the basketball courts for events like PATHS and our community events.

We raised donations from selling popcorn balls at our Trunk n Treat of $14.50 for bathroom project.

The Chili Contest netted $ 67.50 from the sale of desserts.

We discussed the need for help as city worker role in helping with water issues.

We discussed fixing the line from the pump to the Lagoon. Hickman Environmental helps with pumping although there is a hole that has to be fixed soon.

Jim Fritch will be our go to guy for now

Next City Council meeting is December 12, 2022, at 6 pm at the City Hall building.

Matt motioned to adjourn the meeting and Tyler seconded.
